

Qroo Paul's Spanish Master Course

Lesson 12 Summary

Skool.com/qroo

In this lesson, we dive into the verb ESTAR in the present tense and how it's used to describe temporary states and conditions, including emotions, health, and how food tastes or feels. We begin by reviewing the present conjugations of ESTAR (yo estoy, tú estás, él/ella está, nosotros estamos, ellos están), reminding students that estáis is only used in Spain.

Emotions and Conditions:

You learn how to describe how people are feeling using ESTAR plus an adjective. Key vocabulary includes:

- Feliz – happy (invariable in gender, plural = felices; used with both SER and ESTAR)
- Contento/a – content, happy (adjective must agree in gender and number)
- Triste – sad (invariable in gender)
- Deprimido/a – depressed
- Enojado/a – angry (Latin America)
- Enfadado/a – angry (Spain)
- Preocupado/a – worried
- Nervioso/a – nervous
- Aburrido/a – bored
- Cansado/a – tired
- Confundido/a – confused
- Enfermo/a – sick

You practice matching the adjective to the subject in gender and number, and are reminded to say answers out loud to reinforce the patterns.

Building Mini Dialogues:

Students are encouraged to create their own short conversations like: — ¿Cómo estás?
— Estoy triste.
— ¿Por qué estás triste?
— Porque tengo que trabajar.

This reinforces earlier lessons about using tener que and no poder in combination with ESTAR.

Talking About Food with ESTAR:

When describing food in Spanish, use ESTAR for how it tastes or feels right now:

- La comida está buena – The food is good/tasty
- Las fresas están buenas – The strawberries are good
- Está deliciosa – It's delicious
- Está fría / caliente – It's cold / hot (temperature)
- Está picante – It's spicy (picoso is also used in Mexico)

Avoid using bueno/buena for yourself (as in “I’m good”)—that’s where bien should be used instead.

Bonus Phrases Covered:

- ¿Qué tal...? – A casual way to ask “How is...?” (e.g., ¿Qué tal la comida?)
- Porque – because
- ¿Por qué...? – why
- ¿Por qué no...? – why not