

Qroo Paul's Spanish Master Cours

Lesson 6 Summary Sheet

Skool.com/qroo

Lesson Summary: Going Places with the Spanish Mega Verb "IR"

Introduction:

Hey everybody, Qroo Paul here! Welcome to lesson 5 in my Spanish Master Series. In today's lesson, we're going places with the Spanish mega verb IR – to go. We'll explore how to use this verb to talk about going to various places and incorporate it into sentences using expressions of desire, ability, and obligation.

Key Points:

- IR (to go) is a fundamental verb in Spanish.
- To express going to a place, use IR A (e.g., "ir a la tienda" - to go to the store).
- This verb integrates seamlessly with constructions expressing desire, ability, and obligation.

Vocabulary:

- Store: La tienda
- Pharmacy: La farmacia
- Park: El parque
- School: La escuela, el colegio
- Hospital: El hospital
- Library: La biblioteca
- Restaurant: El restaurante
- Supermarket: El supermercado
- Bank: El banco
- Cinema, Movies: El cine
- Gym: El gimnasio
- Beach: La playa

- Airport: El aeropuerto
- Office: La oficina

Example Sentences:

- I want to go to the store.
 - Quiero ir a la tienda.
- Can I go to the store?
 - ¿Puedo ir a la tienda?
- Can you go to the store?
 - ¿Puedes ir a la tienda?
- I have to go to the store.
 - Tengo que ir a la tienda.
- I want to go to the store. Do you want to go to the store with me?
 - Quiero ir a la tienda. ¿Quieres ir a la tienda conmigo?
- I want to, but I can't. I have to go to the bank.
 - Quiero, pero no puedo. Tengo que ir al banco.
- Do you want to go to the beach with me on Monday?
 - ¿Quieres ir a la playa conmigo el lunes?
- No, I have to work on Monday but I can go to the beach with you on Saturday.
 - No, tengo que trabajar el lunes, pero puedo ir a la playa contigo el sábado.

Verb Conjugations (Present Indicative):

- Yo: voy
- Tú: vas
- Él, ella, usted: va
- Nosotros, nosotras: vamos
- Vosotros, vosotras: vais (Used in Spain)
- Ellos, ellas, ustedes: van

- Vos: vas (Used in certain areas of Latin America, not Spain)

Usage Tips:

- IR is often used with the plain present tense to describe where someone is going.
 - Example: "Voy a la tienda." (I am going to the store.)
- Use IR A (place) A (infinitive) to express purpose:
 - Example: "Voy a la tienda a comprar manzanas." (I am going to the store to buy apples.)
- Although para + infinitive can be used to express purpose, it's less common with verbs of motion like IR.

Additional Examples:

- Juan is going to the store to buy milk.
 - Juan va a la tienda a comprar leche.
- I have to go to the bank to take out money.
 - Tengo que ir al banco a sacar dinero.
- Do you have to go to the bank to take out money?
 - ¿Tienes que ir al banco a sacar dinero?

Practice Sentences:

- I have to go to the store to buy bread.
 - Tengo que ir a la tienda a comprar pan.
- Maria has to go to the store to buy sugar.
 - María tiene que ir a la tienda a comprar azúcar.
- Do you want to go to the store?
 - ¿Quieres ir a la tienda?
- No, I don't want to go to the store. I want to go to the park.
 - No, no quiero ir a la tienda. Quiero ir al parque.

- I want to go to the park, but I can't. I have to go to the store to buy more coffee.
 - Quiero ir al parque, pero no puedo. Tengo que ir a la tienda a comprar más café.

Next Steps:

- Conjugate IR in different tenses and moods.
- Practice using IR in various contexts with the provided exercises.

Closing:

That's it for today's lesson! I hope you enjoyed learning about the verb IR and how it can be used in different contexts. Remember, practice makes perfect. Don't forget to check out the exercises posted under select videos in the classroom section on the Qroo Spanish Crew. Keep practicing, and see you in the next lesson!